DECEMBER @ UKIAH LIBRARY

SPECIAL EVENTS

Fri, Dec. 2nd— 5:00-7:30pm First Friday Art Walk: Make Tile Coasters & Book Sale Get in the swing of the holiday season with guitarist/singer Kim Monroe while you create lovely tile coasters for gift giving. Enjoy yummy pizza and our book sale. This event is family friendly, free to the public and sponsored by the Ukiah Valley Friends of the Library.

Sat, Dec. 3rd—10am-3:30pm Book Sale Find a new favorite book at our monthly Friends of the Library book sale! All proceeds benefit the Library.

Saturdays—3:00-4:30pm RAWR Drop-In Teen Club: Reading, Art & Writing Weekly drop-in reading, art, & writing (RAWR) club for teens. Hang out & write, make art, & talk about books with other teens. Snacks provided. Rotation is every two weeks - i.e.: reading, reading, art, art, writing, writing, repeat.

Sundays—2-4pm Knitting & Crochet Drop-In Group All ages & experience levels welcome. There are limited supplies to get you started if you are new to knitting or crocheting, as well as some basic instruction. We encourage you to bring your own supplies for projects you wish to take home.

Thurs, Dec. 8th— 6pm Local Author Reading with Kate Marianchild Ukiah author and naturalist Kate Marianchild will conduct a free reading and discussion group centered on her popular book, Secrets of the Oak Woodlands: Plants and Animals among California's Oaks. She will read from the book's first chapter, "Acorn Woodpecker," pausing every few paragraphs for discussion with the audience. She will have copies of her book to sign, and will also have close-focusing binoculars and oak identification cards for sale. If successful, this event may be the first of a series that would focus on a different chapter each month.

Fri, Dec. 9th— 3:30-4:30pm Minecraft Hour of Code for Kids We'll be sharing the Minecraft coding camp from Code.org. Over 290 million students all around the world have joined the Hour of Code. Kids can start learning here and continue on their own at home. We have limited computers and space. Please come early and feel free to bring your own device. Kids in second grade or older only. For more information, call 463-4490 and ask for Anne or Jannah.

Sat, Dec. 10th— 3-4pm Teen Leadership Council Want to make a difference in your community and make your voice heard? Then join the Teen Leadership Council. Teens will gain valued skills & experience helping with projects such as designing our new teen space, planning events, and recommending books & materials for purchase.

Tues, Dec. 13th—6-7pm Aquifer Activist: Discover Cave Diving Exploration Join us for a multimedia talk with local filmmaker Christopher Brown. Chris will give a uniquely personal account of global cave diving exploration & karst aquifer. Enjoy his unique insight with photos, fossils, advanced proto-type technologies, maps, and stories of this astonishing scientific research conducted around the world. In a fun presentation for all ages and interests, you'll learn about paleo-history, movie monsters, fossil worlds, extremophiles -- and the deepest depths of boundless curiosity!

Weds, Dec. 21st—2-5pm Anime & Manga Club Teens are welcome to join us to make crafts inspired by anime/manga in the Teen Room.

Weds, Dec. 21st—6:30pm Wines & Spines Book Club at Enoteca Wine Bar Adults 21 & over are invited to join our monthly book club for a discussion of Magic For Beginners by Kelly Link at the Enoteca Wine Bar at 106 W. Church St.
